

JGSLA Members regularly receive informative emails from the society including monthly meeting notices, alerts, renewal reminders and acknowledgement for contributions and renewals. If you are a member and are not hearing from us, please check your spam folder, make sure we have your current email address and verify that you have renewed your membership for the current year. If you need assistance please do not hesitate to contact us at ask@JGSLA.org

You can also sign up for the JGSLA blog for frequent updates on the latest breaking Jewish genealogical news. Just click on the Facebook logo on the bottom of the jgsla.org page and it will take you directly to our group's Facebook page where you can join the group.
